PRIDE OF PLACE COMPETITION

Belcarra has been nominated by Mayo County Council to represent Mayo in the All Ireland Pride of Place competition in the small village category.

This is a great honour for the area.
 Judging takes place next Tuesday between 6:00pm and 8:30pm.

The judges are looking at such things as how the community works together, how many amenities an area has and how the community uses them. They also examine how these amenities are funded and at how the local voluntary organisations work with various statutory bodies at County and National level.

Tuesday is a very important evening for Belcarra. Everyone who can at all is asked to come along for the 2½ hours.
 The evening starts with a 15 minute prayer service in the church, that is followed by the judges visiting the Community Centre, Sports Centre, Grianan Mhuire houses, Eviction Cottage and Arcadia Ballroom.

They will then return to the church field where a whole range of activities will be taking place.

This will be followed by a Tree Planting Ceremony at the Common. People from the community are asked to go directly to the church field after the ceremony in the church and enjoy the BBQ, bouncy castle etc.
